Executive summary

In brief

Between 1 and 7 October 2026, 933 relevant public posts discussed CM Devendra Fadnavis across X, Facebook, Instagram and YouTube. Overall conversation remained more positive than negative (55% positive vs. 19.6% negative), but the week saw a significant political flashpoint around the CJP protest in Mumbai, where criticism of Fadnavis and the Maharashtra administration intensified around the Election Commission, protest permissions and law-and-order concerns. The discussion was also shaped by Elections & Politics, Governance & Administration, and Agriculture & Farmers, with Law & Order carrying the highest concentration of negative conversation.

What happened

The most important development was the 2 October CJP protest at Shivaji Park, led by Abhijeet Dipke, demanding the resignation of Chief Election Commissioner Gyanesh Kumar and raising concerns around electoral-roll revision and Election Commission functioning. Mumbai Police had denied permission, but the protest went ahead, creating a strong online discussion around dissent, policing and the government's response. Fadnavis subsequently responded to the CJP's position, while criticism and supportive counter-narratives spread across social platforms.

When and where

Conversation was concentrated around Mumbai, with additional activity in Thane and Pune. Mumbai was the most-mentioned location with 137 posts, followed by Thane (27) and Pune (24). The 2 October Mumbai CJP protest was the key event associated with the week's political spike, while the discussion continued afterward through posts concerning policing, protests and government response.

Who is involved

The discussion around Fadnavis also connected him with Eknath Shinde, the Government of Maharashtra, Narendra Modi, Sunetra Pawar and Rohit Pawar. CJP founder Abhijeet Dipke became a prominent opposing voice in the protest narrative, while public accounts, political figures and news channels amplified different interpretations of the event.

Why it matters

The value for the CMO is not simply that 933 posts were collected. The platform shows which event triggered the conversation, where negativity concentrated, which issues were driving criticism, who was amplifying it, and whether the narrative was gaining momentum. During this week, it highlighted the CJP protest/election narrative, the concentration of criticism in Law & Order, and emerging discussion around Roads & Transport, giving the office specific areas to monitor rather than just a volume number.

Online discussion

933 relevant posts | 55% positive tone | 25.4% neutral | 19.6% negative | 408 supportive of Fadnavis | 88 critical | 297 neutral | 140 unclear. The numbers show the overall direction; the event and narrative analysis explains why the numbers moved and what the CMO office should pay attention to.

Key intelligence

Public conversation peaked on 2 October 2026 447 relevant posts on 2 October 2026, about 5.6× the median day (80); 19.2% negative in tone. Platform search returns the newest posts first, so the most recent days can be over-represented; read late peaks as directional.	Criticism of CM Devendra Fadnavis is concentrated in Elections & Politics and Law & Order 46.6% of the 88 posts critical of CM Devendra Fadnavis carry these narratives. Most common: Elections & Politics (29.5%), Law & Order (17%), Agriculture & Farmers (12.5%).
Conversation is broader than criticism of CM Devendra Fadnavis 9.4% of relevant posts are critical of CM Devendra Fadnavis and 43.7% supportive; 15% do not take a clear position on CM Devendra Fadnavis. By what they discuss: Elections & Politics 23.5%, Governance & Administration 20.9%, Agriculture & Farmers 7%, Law & Order 6.8%.	Explicit threats and abuse are limited in volume but need separate monitoring 14 posts (1.5%) are in the critical band (threats, incitement, violence) and 11 more are high-risk (hate, communal or abusive content, misinformation); the most-engaged reached 24 engagements.
Unverified claims are a recurring information risk 7 posts state allegations the model flagged as possible misinformation. Examples: Clickbait title asserts unverified claims as fact: Param Bir fled via Nepal, Shah scolded Fadnavis, Dino Morea arrested.; Presents unproven gang-rape and murder allegations against Aaditya as established fact and accuses Fadnavis of protecting him.; The post contains unverified claims about a building scam without evidence or sources..	Emerging narrative: Roads & Transport 9 posts (1%), rising from the first half of the period to the second; 1 critical and 3 supportive of CM Devendra Fadnavis. Mostly on X 8, Facebook 1.

What requires attention

CJP / Election Commission Narrative The 2 October CJP protest created a major political conversation around the Election Commission, protest management and the government's response. The key need is to monitor whether this narrative continues to spread or intensifies.	HIGH
Law & Order / Protest Management Law & Order is currently the strongest source of negative discussion, with 49 of 63 posts negative. The CMO should watch whether criticism of police/protest handling develops into a broader narrative against Fadnavis or the government.	HIGH
MPSC / Recruitment Concerns MPSC-related discussion is generating public complaints and criticism around recruitment/exam issues. The important signal for the CMO is whether government action is reducing the negative conversation or whether dissatisfaction is continuing.	HIGH

01. SAGA Insights

TOPIC	WHAT IS HAPPENING	WHY IT MATTERS
CJP Protest & Election Narrative	The 2 October CJP protest in Mumbai became one of the week's biggest political flashpoints. The discussion focused on allegations around the Election Commission, voter-roll revision and the demand for the CEC's resignation. Fadnavis directly responded to the narrative, creating both criticism and supportive counter-narratives online.	High attention: The platform can track how the protest narrative spreads, identify whether criticism is increasing, and surface influential accounts driving the conversation.
MPSC / Recruitment Concerns	Student dissatisfaction around exam irregularities, alleged paper leaks and delayed recruitment remained a visible issue. The government has already taken steps, including transferring the MPSC secretary, announcing a larger recruitment drive and moving toward offline examinations. The Bombay High Court has also taken up the issue.	Action + perception: SAGA can show whether these government actions are reducing criticism or whether dissatisfaction is continuing despite the response.
Drought & Farmer Distress	Drought pressure and farmer concerns remained an important negative narrative, particularly around Marathwada/Vidarbha . The government has expanded drought coverage, ordered relief measures and said assistance should reach farmers before Diwali.	Early warning: SAGA can identify districts and specific grievances where public frustration is building, helping the office distinguish broad concern from isolated complaints.

Law & Order / Protest Management	Law-and-order discussion was the most negative major narrative in the report. The conversation includes criticism of police handling of protests as well as posts supporting stronger government action. The report identifies 49 negative posts within the Law & Order narrative.	Reputation risk: The platform helps the CMO see whether operational incidents are becoming a broader perception issue around the government or Fadnavis personally.
Governance & Public Delivery	A substantial share of discussion was positive and focused on visible government activity: Dharavi redevelopment, PM POSHAN, investment promotion and public programmes. Fadnavis's PM POSHAN review included examining extension of the nutrition scheme through Class 10 and improving delivery in remote areas.	Measure impact: SAGA connects government announcements with the public response, showing which initiatives are generating support and where implementation complaints remain.
Investment & Economic Development	Invest Maharashtra generated a strong positive development narrative, with 67 MoUs representing about ₹8.57 lakh crore in proposed investment and potential employment generation.	Positive narrative tracking: The platform helps identify whether major government initiatives are being amplified positively and which messages are receiving the strongest public engagement.
Investment & Jobs Narrative	Invest Maharashtra generated strong positive attention this week, with the state launching a platform alongside 67 proposed MoUs worth ₹8.57 lakh crore , representing potential employment of around 2.91 lakh people across sectors including semiconductors, data centres, renewable energy, healthcare and advanced manufacturing. The initiative was widely discussed in connection with Fadnavis's economic-development agenda.	Positive narrative tracking: The platform helps identify whether major government initiatives are being amplified positively and which messages are receiving the strongest public engagement.
Roads, Transport & Local Civic Issues	Roads and transport was the emerging narrative in the report, while individual complaints around traffic, electricity and public transport were also appearing.	Emerging issue detection: Even relatively small issue volumes can be surfaced early when their frequency or negativity starts increasing, giving the CMO an opportunity to act before they become larger narratives.

04. Positive, negative and neutral posts

Each post's overall tone, separated. Tone is not the same as stance: a negative post can be negative about someone other than CM Devendra Fadnavis — the stance line under each tone shows which.
