Executive summary

In brief	Between 1 and 7 October 2026, 331 relevant public posts discussed Raj Thackeray across X and Facebook, generating approximately 19,295 engagements and 2,70,862 views. Overall tone was 11.2% positive, 47.1% neutral and 41.7% negative. From Raj Thackeray's individual perspective, 101 posts were critical and 52 supportive, while 136 were neutral and 42 unclear. The conversation was dominated by Elections & Politics (66.2%), followed by Law & Order (5.1%) and Employment & Jobs (1.8%).
What happened	The conversation peaked sharply on 2 October, with 179 posts, around 7.5× the median daily volume. The main driver was the "Garjana" march and broader political discussion around the Election Commission and democratic institutions. Raj Thackeray's own posts about the march and Mahatma Gandhi also received strong engagement.
Where and who	The conversation was heavily concentrated in Mumbai City (71 posts), followed by Pune and Thane. MNS, Uddhav Thackeray, BJP, Shiv Sena (UBT), Congress and Shiv Sena were the most frequently discussed alongside Raj Thackeray.
Why it matters	Raj Thackeray's individual narrative is currently more critical than supportive, with most direct criticism concentrated in Elections & Politics and Law & Order. At the same time, Employment & Jobs is an emerging constructive narrative, with MPSC-related discussion producing supportive visibility for him. The report also identifies 6 critical and 9 high-risk posts requiring separate monitoring.

What requires attention

PRIORITY	ISSUE	WHAT IS HAPPENING	WHY IT MATTERS
HIGH	Elections & Political Positioning	Elections & Politics accounts for 219 posts , with 71 directly critical of Raj Thackeray . The "Garjana" march and Election Commission narrative drove the biggest spike in discussion.	This is the largest source of direct criticism and can significantly shape Raj Thackeray's political positioning.
HIGH	Law & Order / Protest Narrative	Law & Order has a smaller volume but a strong negative concentration: 10 posts are directly critical of Raj Thackeray and none supportive .	Continued association between Raj Thackeray/MNS and confrontation, protest management or public-order concerns could increase reputational pressure.
HIGH	Threats, Hate & Abusive Content	The report identifies 6 critical and 9 high-risk posts , including threats, incitement, communal content and abusive posts involving or targeting Raj Thackeray.	These should be monitored separately from normal political criticism because escalation or wider circulation can materially affect the public narrative.
MEDIUM	Emerging Corruption Narrative	Corruption is growing and currently has 5 posts , with 2 directly critical of Raj Thackeray.	The volume is still small, but the upward trend makes early monitoring useful.

01. SAGA Analysis

TOPIC	WHAT IS HAPPENING	WHY IT MATTERS
Elections & Political Positioning	The dominant conversation with 219 posts (66.2%) . Within this narrative, 71 posts were critical and 36 supportive of Raj Thackeray . The discussion was strongly connected to the "Garjana" march and political positioning around the Election Commission.	This is the main driver of Raj Thackeray's public image and the biggest source of direct criticism.
Law & Order / Protest Management	17 posts discussed Law & Order, with 14 negative in overall tone and 10 directly critical of Raj Thackeray .	The narrative can influence how Raj Thackeray and MNS are perceived in relation to protests, public order and political mobilisation.
MPSC / Employment & Jobs — Positive Opportunity	Employment & Jobs is the fastest-growing narrative , with 6 posts. There were no critical posts and 1 supportive post toward Raj Thackeray . Several posts highlighted his engagement with the MPSC student issue and recruitment concerns.	This is a constructive issue-based narrative that gives Raj Thackeray an opportunity to build support among students and young job seekers.
Corruption / Governance Narrative	Corruption is also growing, with 5 posts , 4 negative in tone and 2 directly critical of Raj Thackeray .	Although smaller in volume, the upward movement makes this worth watching before it becomes a stronger reputational narrative.
Public Perception of MNS / Leadership	Political criticism also extends to Raj Thackeray's leadership, MNS positioning and relationships with other political parties. Raj Thackeray was the most frequently criticised individual/entity in the report, with 156 posts identified as criticism targets in the broader discussion.	This indicates that criticism is not limited to one issue; leadership credibility and political consistency are recurring themes.
